Mrs. Kemper, widow of the late Dr. Kemper, president of the Nashville Seamen's Association, died suddenly Tuesday morning at the Kenosha water cure. The funeral was held this morning at Nashville.

Henry Lee, son of Robert E. Lee, who has been nominated for congress in the Eighth Virginia District, during the war was a rebel cavalryman and was made a prisoner. He was at one time selected for execution in retaliation for some negro soldiers who had been condemned to death, but who were never executed.

Reports to the New England Homestead from the principal onion-growing sections of the country indicate a short crop and higher prices. This is true not only to New England, but in the onion fields of New York state and the west. The prices to farmers are from 60 cents to $1 per bushel, but the demand is moderately active and growers are disposed to hold for higher prices. The crop in Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin and throughout the west generally is very short, and instead of Western competition, the probabilities are that eastern growers will be shipped west before spring. The onion seed crop is good.

WHY GOVERNOR RUSK SHOULD BE ELECTED.

In a late number of the Milwaukee Free Press, an independent or mag-wamp Garman paper, is the following endorsement of Governor Rusk: "It is a universal prediction and considered a foregone conclusion, that Governor Rusk will not only be elected, but will receive a larger vote and a greater majority than ever before. This reason is clear enough for anyone who is acquainted with the people and their ideas. He will not be re-elected by a rousing majority because he is a republican, nor because he has made a superb governor, but because there is a class of persons who are trying to defeat him because in the fulfillment of his duty he has crushed a mob."

The New Jersey Free Zeitung, also an independent paper, comes to the support of the governor in this fashion: "Governor Rusk has the best chance of a candidate for governor ever had in this state to be elected by a big majority. He is not only endorsed by republicans but by a great many democrats; and the laborers who oppose him because he did his duty in squelching the May riots, should remember the fact that the governor proved himself their warm friend at a time when railway managers called on him for help when they were troubled by striking laborers. The answer he gave the railway officers was 'They need bread but not bullets.' They should further remember that it was this same governor who assisted the workmen in obtaining their just wages, and who drew a line as between personal favor and official duty. "We hope we can report the fact on the 30th of November that Rusk is triumphantly elected."

JUDGE DOOLITTLE NOMINATED.

Our esteemed fellow-citizen, the Hon. James K. Doolittle, has been nominated for congress by the democrats of this district. The democrats are to be commended for making this nomination. It will please the judge in that it will show that the democrats have not forgotten him, which is one good thing; and it will not interfere with the old time republican majority in the First district, which is another good thing. It is quite gratifying to hear from Judge Doolittle once in a while, for were it not that now and then he comes to the surface as a seer for office, the people of Wisconsin would soon forget him. He is an old, good number. He has been out of office a little over 17 years. The last time he had the privilege of serving the people in an official capacity, was in the senate of the United States, but in 1869 the judgment of the Wisconsin legislature was that he vacate the seat for Matt H. Carpenter, and since that time Judge Doolittle has been with out public recognition except in nominations. He was nominated for governor by the democrats in 1871, but Mr. Wauburn beat him by nearly 10,000 majority.

Judge Doolittle has had a strange political career. Up to 1838, he was a hard shell democrat. In that year he was a delegate to the national democratic convention which met at Baltimore, and was one of the bolters in that body

RUSSIA'S PLAIN TALK.

BRUIN EVIDENTLY PROPOSES TO RUN THINGS IN BULGARIA.

The czar's envoy lays down the law to the Bulgarians as though there were no "powers"—Some Contributions to the Salvationist "Self-Denial Fund"—Foreign Miscellany.

SOFTLY, Sept. 30.—The regency council have posted notices containing their programme for the coming elections to the sovereign. Gen. Kaulbars, the Russian envoy, threatens to remove the notices. The people are loud in expressions of resentment against Russia's role, of which Gen. Kaulbars was the bearer. The friction between the regency council and Gen. Kaulbars is increasing daily and complete rupture with Russia may occur at any moment.

Gen. Kaulbars has issued a circular to the Russian consuls in Bulgaria, and requested them to acquaint the people of Bulgaria with its contents. The circular says that the time for more words is past; the czar can now be convinced only by acts. That the people and the controlling influence of Bulgaria are favorable to Russia. When he shall become so convinced, and only then, he can offer the country internal and external protection. The circular also accuses the Bulgarians of acts of violence or discipline, of burning Russian flag, of burning and otherwise destroying the insignia of St. George, wherever found, and of showing many other evidences of disrespect to the czar and his government. Russia, the circular says, can not allow the trial by court martial, or otherwise, of the conspirators whose acts compelled the abdication of Prince Alexander; nor will she permit it to be conducted in view of the tone of this circular, which has been widely circulated by Russian agents, the government of Bulgaria will resist to the last the demands contained in the czar's ultimatum of which Gen. Kaulbars was the bearer.

Russia's menace, contained in her ultimatum, that she will not give her sanction to the proposal of a candidate to succeed Prince Alexander, unless the Bulgarian elections are postponed, is construed here to foreshadow the intention of the czar's government to impale the election of a new prince.

SCOFFED AT BY THE UNGOODY.

Gen. Booth's Success with a Self-Denial Fund—Specimen Donations.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—In spite of the scoffing of a large number of people and the ridicule of the ungodly newspapers, the Salvationist self-denial fund, "Gen. Booth's Self-Denial Fund," is meeting with great favor and considerable success. Of the 25,000 demanded, 14,000 have already been received and penitents are coming in to the custody of the fund with no sign of abatement. In an interesting account of the fund, the secretary of the fund, a converted stock broker and one of the ladies, said that the contents of their plate chests for the benefit of the fund, and a number of Manchester had donated 4500 in cash. Three other donors sent 2500 each, three suits, cloaks, watches, chains, cutlery, family Bibles, jewelry, etc., were being received in profusion. A large number of soldiers, Mr. Reed said, had worked extra shifts and sent the money thus earned to him, and hundreds of soldiers had lived upon bread and water for a week in order that they might contribute to the fund the cost of their usual food.

A Short Cut to Irish Autonomy.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The Times' Foreign Correspondent, Mr. T. speaking at Sherwood Wednesday evening, said that he in common with the Irish people abhorred crime, but that he was not in favor of the execution of the criminals. He said that the only way to achieve autonomy for Ireland was by the use of force. He said that the only way to achieve autonomy for Ireland was by the use of force. He said that the only way to achieve autonomy for Ireland was by the use of force.

Everything Goes Against the Police.

BRISTOL, Sept. 30.—Desperate fighting took place Wednesday between Protestant and Catholic workmen employed at Barbour's foundry in this city. The police interfered to quell the disturbance, whereupon the fighting broke out in earnest. The police were soon reinforced by a troop of cavalry, who charged the rioters and dispersed them. Scores of the mob were injured, some of them severely, and many of the policemen were seriously wounded.

The Priest Who Assassinated the Bishop.

ALBANY, Sept. 30.—The trial of Cayetano Galeote, the priest who assassinated Mgr. Narciso Liguero, bishop of Madrid, on Palm Sunday, April 18 last, is in progress here and is attracting immense crowds of people. Thousands who are unable to obtain admission surround the palace where the trial is proceeding. Galeote insists that he was wholly justified in taking the life of the bishop and that he had no other motive than to avenge the death of his fellow priest, who had been guilty of a crime against the church.

A Hoosier Student Turns Novelist.

CRANFORDVILLE, Ind., Sept. 30.—A. B. Cunningham, a retired soldier of this city, has turned his hand to novel writing, and is now completing the manuscript for "Hoosier Stories for the Last Quarter of a Century." The scene is laid in Montgomery and Tippecanoe counties and in the southern part of the state.

in rheumatism, it is equally efficacious as a remedy for neuralgia, liver complaint, indigestion, chills and fever, debility, and inactivity of the kidneys and bladder. It may also, be relied upon to promote sleep and appetite.

REPUBLICAN POLITICS.

NOMINEES IN MASSACHUSETTS, NEBRASKA AND COLORADO.

Oliver Ames, John W. Thayer, and William H. Meyer Selected for Governor by the Three States Respectively—Logan as a Soldier's Reunion—Illinois Liquor Dealers—Notes.

DORCHESTER, Mass., Sept. 30.—Henry Cabot Lodge was selected as permanent chairman of the Republican state convention, which met Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, and among the vice presidents were Senators Dawes and Hoar and Congressman Long. Mr. Lodge, upon taking the chair, addressed the convention at considerable length in criticism of the present administration and the Democratic party, and he was vigorously applauded all through his speech.

The platform adopted calls for laws to suppress the liquor evil and for legislation for the protection of workingmen against injustice and convict and pauper labor; demands prompt action to protect American fishermen from Canadian injustice; favors correction of the inequality of the tariff while holding to the principle of protection and denouncing the Morrison tariff bill; denounces the "offensive journalism" of Postmaster General Vilas; condemns the action of Secretary Bayard regarding Mexico, as being harsh and unwise; and expresses its opposition to a bankruptcy bill providing for second chances, and concludes with a denunciation of the continued coinage of silver.

In the hall for governor Oliver Ames received the votes of 64, and was declared the nominee with great enthusiasm. J. Q. A. Brackett was selected for lieutenant governor on the first ballot, and then the following were chosen by acclamation to complete the ticket: Secretary of state, Henry B. Pierce; treasurer, A. W. Beard; auditor, Charles R. Laid; attorney general, Edgar J. Sherman.

The convention then adjourned. An incident of the reading of the platform was the repudiation of the plank on the liquor question by the chairman of the resolutions committee, Danbar. He was hissed and cheered.

A Boost for Logan.

CATON, Ill., Sept. 30.—There were 30,000 people present at the southern Illinois soldiers' reunion Wednesday, and the veterans gloried themselves thoroughly "fighting their battle over."

At 1 o'clock the immense crowd on the grounds suddenly set up a wild hurrahing. The emotion in the camp was great, in quick succession, drums beat, horns blared, and Gen. Logan had left the hotel and was on his way to the camp, which he entered in his carriage. This was the signal for renewed applause, the old veterans waving their hats, and shouting their handkerchiefs, and all shouted and hurrahed until they were hoarse. This lasted for at least ten minutes, when the general advanced to the front of the stand and warmly thanked the veterans for their brave and patriotic services. He was very tired from frequent speaking, and said he would not make any further remarks. John R. Thomas, member of congress from the Twelfth district, was introduced and made a spirited address, in which he said that Gen. Logan had done enough for his country to make him president of the United States, and declared he would be in 1888.

Illinois Liquor Dealers.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 30.—The liquor dealers of this city completed their work here Wednesday, the most interesting portion of the proceedings being the report of the resolutions committee. The resolutions declared sharply in favor of the repeal of all laws which would restrict the liquor traffic, and that as the draft shop act of Illinois has been so construed by the courts as to make liquor dealers technically liable for offenses committed without their knowledge or intent it should be amended. The only political reference in the resolutions is in these words: "We declare ourselves absolutely free from the control of any politician; that we are independent of any political party, and irrespective of party, will support only men for office whose record shows them to be in favor of personal liberty for all men." Charles Wacker, of Chicago, was elected president, and P. F. Maloney, of Chicago, secretary. The meeting next year will be held in Rock Island.

Nebraska State Ticket Nominated.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 30.—The state Republican convention met here Wednesday and nominated the following ticket: Governor, Gen. John M. Thayer, elected by acclamation; lieutenant governor, H. H. Snodell; secretary of state, G. W. Davis; treasurer, G. H. Willard; auditor, Geo. W. Wiley; attorney general, A. B. Hancock; attorney general, William Leasure; land commissioner, Joseph Scott; superintendent of public instruction, George B. Lane.

Colorado Republicans.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 30.—Hon. William L. Meyer was nominated Wednesday for governor by the Republican state convention on the third ballot. Other nominations were made as follows: For lieutenant governor, Hon. N. J. Melendrum; congressman, Judge G. G. Syme; state treasurer, P. W. Brown; secretary of state, Capt. James Price.

Congressional Nominations.

Among the nominations for congress Wednesday were the following: Republican—Benjamin F. Flint, of Ohio; Gen. Charles Brown, Second Ohio; Democrats—Gen. A. J. Warner, Thirteenth Ohio; Edward Rice, Fourth Minnesota; James H. Doolittle, First Wisconsin.

Royal Arch Masons Visit the President.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 30.—At the president's palace yesterday afternoon a delegation of the Royal Arch Masons visited the president. The delegation consisted of many old friends among the masons, and spoke a few pleasant words with them. The grand council of Royal and Select Master Masons held its last meeting Wednesday afternoon. New officers were elected and installed.

Coal Miners to Ask Higher Wages.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 30.—Wednesday 7,000 river miners, through their representatives, asked the coal operators for a conference, at which a demand from the men for an advance from 25 to 30 cents per bushel is to be considered. The operators say that they can not grant an increase at present. A strike will be ordered next week if no compromise can be effected.

Novel Suit Against Harvard College.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Dr. R. Brooks, of Chicago, has sued Harvard college for $50,000 damages on account of injuries received while a student at the college by the explosion of the chemicals which he was preparing under the direction of a professor.

Commissioner Black Overruled.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 30.—Secretary Lamar has overruled Commissioner of Pensions Black's decision and granted a pension of $100 a month to Mrs. Mary, wife of Dr. Figg, who died in 1817 of Arctic rigors while with the Green's expedition.

The Gold and Silver Shirts and Collars are the Cheapest and Best

This advertisement may possibly be read by some who have not so much Gold or Silver as Mr. Jay Gould, but they can be cheered by the fact that the "Gold" and "Silver" Shirts (offered at popular prices) are within the reach of all. The wealthy wear them because of their perfect fit and elegant finish; the frugal wear them because they are made from the most durable materials and so faced and re-inforced as to give twice the service of ordinary goods, while over and above all, the great majority of sensible men in this country wear them because they are the cheapest and best.
